Comix Experience Sub System

Welcome back my friends, to the show that never ends. Before we have the judges come out and explain the rules, we'd like to open with a statement about comic books in general. If you use it as a guideline, you'll never be unhappy...

ONLY BUY COMICS THAT YOU READ AND ENJOY!

We cannot stress that highly enough. Comics are an entertainment medium, and, as such, must provide you with entertainment for your dollar. Especially in these days of price increases and over-hyped title launches, it is important for you, as a fan, to vote with your pocketbook. Regardless of our personal tastes and recommendations to y'all you should immediately quit reading any title that you don't actively enjoy! Stop buying a comic just to keep your collection complete, and stop buying it if you are "waiting for it to get better." All we want is for you to be happy, and to always feel that you are getting value for your dollar. 'Nuff said?

Now we'd like to talk about the rules of this Sub system:

1. You fill out a subscription update form every month. The deadline to turn in your form is printed on the front of the form. You must also come in at least once a month to pay for and clear out your books. Exceptions can be made if, for example, you are going out of town, but you must inform us, in writing (any note will do), to insure no interruption of your service. If you do not pick up your books during the month for which they were ordered, we will not hold them for you to pick up late unless you give us written instructions to do so.

2. You must make a deposit and keep an up-to-date deposit form on file with us. You can make the deposit either with: 1) An executed verified credit card form (with the amount to be filled in should you fail to pick up your books), or 2) a cash deposit of $5.00 or 50% of the value of your order, whichever is greater. Please note that this deposit will be applied to any outstanding amounts you owe us for books that you have not picked up within the required time. If the deposit amount is not sufficient, we may require you to pay the balance due before accepting any other subscription form requests.

3. If you mark it, you buy it. We base our orders on some items very closely to your choices, and will hold you to it. Submitting a sub-form is an explicit contract. Of course, if we make an error pulling your books, you may throw it back. You may tell us BEFORE a book is placed in your box that you wish to cancel it, but once it makes it into your slot, you're obligated to purchase what you ordered.

4. We can only guarantee your order if you get it to us before the deadline, which is marked on the cover of the form. This especially pertains to any limited item. After this date, we will make every effort to fill your order, but can no longer assure it. This is generally not a problem with most titles.

5. Please don't forget to put your name on your form. Forms without names go instantly into the garbage.

6. For your own sake, take your time when you fill out the forms. Make sure you read the New Comics section for info, and ask us any specific questions you may have. We strongly urge you NOT to complete the form at the store. Do it at home where you can take some time to consider your choices.

7. By turning in a form, you create a legal obligation to pay for and pick up the books you chose. Just because you aren't paying for them right now, don't let your eyes get bigger than your pocketbook. It might behoove you to add up your choices, and make certain you can afford them in your budget. By signing and delivering to us the subscription form, you agree to pay for and pick up all books ordered. By signing the deposit form and paying us the deposit, you agree to allow us to use the deposit to cover the price of any books you do not pick up!

We only have a limited amount of room on the sub form, however we will happily order any item out of the distributor's catalog that you desire. Diamond Previews lists hundreds of products that we haven't the room for, and gives much more in-depth descriptions of titles. All special orders have the same deadline as the subscription form, and may be subject to a further deposit (though that's very rare!)

Thousands of more products are available each month and can be looked at in Diamond's PREVIEWS catalog online:
<https://www.previewsworld.com/Catalog>

You can also find each week's new releases at:
<https://www.previewsworld.com/NewReleases>

As well as a listing of what is on "final order cutoff" each week, including all of the variant covers and stuff like that – remember we do not order rack copies of variant covers in most cases unless there are orders placed in advance!
<https://www.previewsworld.com/FinalOrdersDue>

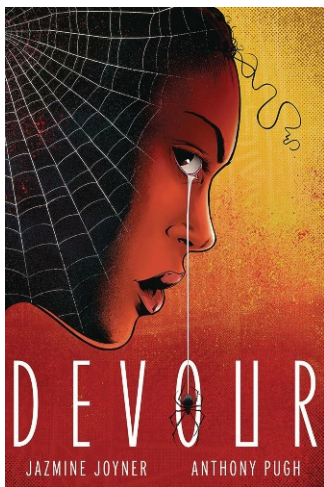

Them's the rules! If you have any questions, or need any clarifications whatsoever, please feel free to directly contact owner Brian Hibbs at:

Devour HC: The Turner family has moved to Alabama to care for ailing matriarch Vassie, the last of a long line of powerful root women who've cared for the community since their ancestors were first captured and enslaved by white plantation owners. The locals' fear of Vassie sets off eldest Patsy's alarm bells, pushing her to investigate and discover a magical room beneath the house with the source of her family's legendary skills: Anansi the Ghanaian spider god. Anansi is eating Vassie's memories, and Patsy must take up her grandmother's mantle along with baby brother Demetrius while she can still remember who they are. Written by Jazmine Joyner with art from Anthony Pugh. 208 pages for $24.99

Archie Comics

Archie Comics: Judgment Day #1 (of 3): In a world overrun with demons, Archie is on a quest to cleanse Riverdale of all wicked-kind. Harnessing the destructive power of a captive fiend, he will have to destroy corrupted and possessed versions of the people closest to. Are his efforts truly made with good intentions, or

AWA Studios

Death Ratio'd One Shot: When Arnold awakes from a coma 20 years later, he discovers that the government is a thing of the past and society is now ruled by social media—that is, enough likes and upvotes can unlock fame and fortune, while the opposite leads to...well, execution. Written by Mark Russell with art from Laci. 48 pages for $6.99

Boom! Studios

The Amory Wars: No World For Tomorrow #1 (of 12): The Coheed and Cambria duo is back with the final chapter of Amory Wars. Claudio Kilgannon was thought dead by the Red Army, but a rising suspicion sends them on a trail to discover his fate. If he is, in fact, alive, he'll be in dire straits amidst the mystery and mayhem that's yet to unfold. Written by Claudio Sanchez & Chondra Echert with art from Guillaume Martinez. 32 pages for $4.99

Crocodile Black #1 (of 5): Danny, an average man with no control over his spiraling life, witnesses something during a delivery job that changes him forever. Things are bad, but they're about to turn as black as the crocodile skin boots he can't take his eyes off of... Written by Phillip Kennedy Johnson with art from Somnath Pal. 32 pages for $4.99

The Field GN: 1970s Ontario. Developers have begun digging up a field on the edges of Dave's universally familiar small town, presenting endless nooks and crannies for Dave and his fearless friend Edward to explore. While the town's adults remain focused on their fractured marriages, the children run wild in the field, collecting caterpillars and tadpoles, catching field mice and nursing a curious fascination with Dave's mother's matches and their potential for disaster... Written & drawn by Dave Lapp. 540 pages for $30

Dark Horse

Anansi Boys #1: "Fat" Charlie Nancy leads a boring life in London until he discovers two things: 1. His recently deceased father was Anansi the Spider, aka the trickster god of African folklore; and 2. He has a twin brother. This kicks off a reality-spanning odyssey of sibling-rivalry, jealous deities and one poor soul who'll soon realize what it truly means to be a god. Written by Neil Gaiman & Marc Bernardin with art from Shawn Martinbrough. 32 pages for $3.99

Beyond the Pale #1: War correspondent Hetta Sawyer is looking into the disproportionate loss of Black soldiers in the Vietnam War. Leads say losses are particularly high at Firebase Tartarus, most simply "gone missing." Something sinister is happening, and Hetta intends to uncover the truth. Written by

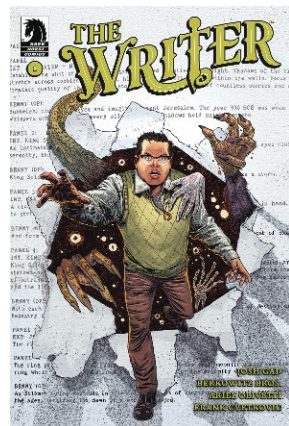

Christofer Emgard with art from Tomas Aira. 32 pages for $4.99

Into the Unbeing #1: A group of climate scientists working in a remote base camp on the Australian outback discover an impossible landform. Unsure of what to expect, they venture inside only to find the Unbeing: an anomalous environment that defies everything they think they know about the world. Written by Zac Thompson with art from Hayden Sherman. 32 pages for $3.99

The Writer #1: Comic book writer Stan Siegel's life develops into a neo-Nazi occult nightmare, plunging him into a whirl of Jewish folklore and magic while being chased by demonic forces. To combat the rising tide of terror, Stan must become the hero from his pages. Written by Josh Gad & the Berkowitz

Brothers with art from Ariel Olivetti. 32 pages for $3.99

DC Entertainment

The Boy Wonder #1 (of 5): Prince Damian Wayne was raised to be the heir to the fearsome League of Assassins, following in the footsteps of his deadly mother & grandfather...until the Batman brought him back to Gotham, making him just another Robin. Preceded in the role by his "brothers," Damian resents this apparent demotion. But when Batman leaves on urgent business, a rash of abductions finds Damian battling alongside his adoptive brothers—and in the process, learning what the mantle of Robin really means. Written & drawn by Juni Ba. 32 pages for $5.99

Wonder Woman: The Adventures of Young Diana: The world may know her as Wonder Woman, but once upon a time she was Diana, the young princess of Themyscira. Back then, she struggled to find her place on an island deemed paradise by many, but which was, to her, a prison. Trapped in her role as a royal and shielded from the harsh realities of Man's World, Diana yearned for adventure, or at least a purpose. So when ancient texts portraying her home's history go missing, she gets both. Written by Jordie Bellaire with art from Paulina Ganucheau. 192 pages for $16.99

Drawn & Quarterly

Moomin Adventures Book One: Five volumes of Moomin in one nice big softcover at a sweet, affordable price point: 400 pages for $23! Fall into the Moominvalley, brought to you by siblings Tove and Lars Jansson.

Second Hand Love: For a young woman interested in love without the hassle of a traditional relationship, an affair with someone else's spoiled husband is just what she ordered—until it's time to move on. Then there's Yuko: with even less time for married men's shenanigans, she turns her attention to her aging father and the guilt of adultery that has gnawed at his heart for years. Her mother is long dead, yet her memory is enshrined for eternity in their—both father's and daughter's—mirrored indiscretions. Written & drawn by Murasaki Yamada. 228 pages for $24.95

DSTLR

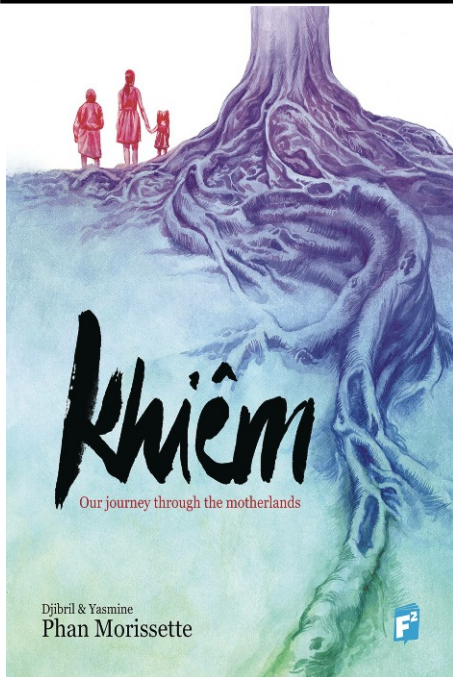

One for Sorrow #1: London, 1900. The capital hums with the energy of the new era, but something darker lurks beneath the surface. A monstrous figure stalks the city's criminal underworld at night, leaving a trail of bloody corpses in its wake. Dubbed the Magpie for the black & white feather left on each body, the police have no other clues. Does the Magpie kill at random, or is there a pattern they can distinguish? Three individuals, strangers to each other, may have the answer. Written & drawn by Jamie McKelvie. 48 pages for $8.99

FairSquare Comics

Khiêm: Our Journey Through the Motherlands GN: Too often, immigrants bring fragments of their culture with them, pass them on to their seeds, but the reality remains grainy to those descendants. Yasmine and Djibril decided to reconnect with their mother's ancestral home and confront themselves with the realities of Vietnam. Written by Yasmin Morissette-Phan with art from Djibril Morissette-Phan. 200 pages for $29.99

Fantagraphics

Delights: A Story of Hieronymus Bosch: In his first graphic novel in over 30 years, Guy Colwell explores the story behind

Hieronymus Bosch and his most famous work. Bosch is paid to paint a vision of the world before the fall, but will the religious leaders see it as celebrating God's creation or as fatally corrupted by sensuality? 168 pages for $29.99

Floating World Comics

Sept 'N' Ember One-Shot: Sept and her alter ego, Ember, wander the weird magical wasteland world of the Wrenchies, encountering many dangers and wonderful sights along the way. Written & drawn by Farel Dalrymple. 32 pages for $10

Graphic Mundi

Flavors of Iraq: Impressions of My Vanished Wasteland GN: In the summer of 2016, distraught by Iraq's description in the media, French-Iraqi journalist Feurat Alani posted over 1,000 tweets describing his childhood summers in an Iraq that he watched fall apart under the dictatorship of Saddam Hussein. As an adult, he reports from the Iraq under American occupation and discovers the sounds and silences of war. Written by Feurat Alani with art from Leonard Cohen. 184 pages for $19.95

Traces of Madness GN: Fernando Balius was a fairly ordinary person until he began hearing voices, depicted in this book as a monster working to destroy his self-esteem and urge him to hurt himself. Fernando describes what it is like, physically and mentally, to lose your grip on reality. Written by Fernando Balius with art from Mario Pellejer. 128 pages for $19.95

Henry Holt

The Talk: Darrin Bell was six years old when his mother told him he couldn't have a realistic water gun. She said she feared for his safety, that police tend to think of little Black boys as older and less innocent than they really are. Coming of age in Los Angeles, Bell becomes painfully aware of being regarded as dangerous by white teachers, neighbors, and police officers and thus of his mortality. And now, in a world where little has changed, Bell must decide whether he and his own six-year-old son are ready to have The Talk. Written & drawn by Darrin Bell. 352 pages for $23.99

Image Comics

Ain't No Grave #1 (of 5): Ryder put her violent past behind her when she fell in love and became a mother. But that was before she learned it was all going to be taken away. Now she'll have to pick up her guns once again and ride to kill the one who's behind the threat...which just happens to be Death. Written by Skottie Young with art from Jorge Corona. 48 pages for $5.99

Bear Pirate Viking Queen #1 (of 3): I think you're supposed to be able to tell if you'll be interested in this series based on the title, which really is about as much information as I've been given to share with you. It's watercolor. Written by Sean Lewis with art from Jonathan Marks & Barravecchia. 72 pages for $4.99

Blood Squad Seven #1: Thirty years ago, they were America's premiere celebrity superhero team. Seen on television, on tabloid magazine covers, scoring million-dollar endorsement deals, etc. Now, a new generation takes up the mantle, fulfilling a promise made decades ago: to be the heroes that a fractured America needs. Written by Joe Casey with art from Paul Fry. 32 pages for $3.99

Grommets #1 (of 7): Two best-friend outcasts navigate the Sacramento suburbs of 1984, where they find a home in skateboard culture and punk rock. A snapshot of the generation that turned skating into a worldwide phenomenon, and a heartfelt coming-of-age story that follows two friends from troubled homes as they navigate their damage in an era when no one cared. Cool Gen X'ers, rise up! Written by Rick Remender & Brian Posehn with art from Brett Parson & Moreno Diniso. 32 pages for $3.99

Monolith #1 (of 3): The origin of the hulking Hellspawn is finally revealed. What connection does he have to one of the most savage of his kind, Omega Spawn? Follow his journey from the cosmic depths of deep-spawn to his first encounter with Al Simmons. Written by Sean Lewis with art from Valerio Giangiordano. 24 pages for $2.99

The Singularity OGN: Blue Eyes can't stop being reborn. He tumbles from life to life, from one unthinkably strange universe to the next—the only constant being that, one way or another, everything that he learns to love is lost. But when he finally catches up to a mysterious figure he's seen recurring throughout his lives, he realizes he might just have a chance to escape his cursed immortality—or, at very least, exact revenge for it. A companion to composer Bear McCreary's original concept album, The Singularity brings an assortment of comics artists with a sweeping, cosmic story about the lessons that loss can teach us. Written by Bear McCreary & Mat Groom with art from a buncha people: Ramon K Perez, Danilo Beyruth, Matias Bergara & more. 144 pages for $17.99

The Whisper Queen #1 (of 3): From the world of WHITE TREES: The royal guard has sent their most capable bounty hunters after the accomplices in the king's murder! Javro, once the king's most skilled assassin, must find the killers before they and the bounty hunters—including her son—are wiped out by the kingdom's most feared specter: The Dark Whisper! Written by Chip Zdarsky with art from Kris Anka. 32 pages for $3.99

Mad Cave

Mugshots #1 (of 4): Brighton, UK, 2008. A young woman's kidnapping starts a chain of events that will set con artists, gangsters, killers and corrupt police on a collision course of violence. John Bannon, a self-proclaimed bastard and loving uncle, is at the center of this tale of family trauma, betrayal, murder and revenge that threatens to bring the city's whole underworld down. Written by Jordan Thomas with art from Chris Matthews. 36 pages for $5.99

Sanction #1 (of 5): Leningrad, 1987. When a woman's corpse is discovered on New Year's Day, a hungover Detective Pavel Smirnoff hands off the case to his partner, Detective Boris Dimitrovich, hoping he'll close it without fuss. Instead, Dimitrovich uncovers a connection to an old, unsolved crime, dragging them both into an investigation that puts their careers and lives at risk. Written by Ray Fawkes with art from Antonio Fusco. 28 pages for $4.99

Magma Comics

The Scale Trade #1: In a modern world one step removed from our own, dragons are a highly respected and endangered species. When a young idealist joins the federal agency tasked with managing dragon populations, he quickly discovers that the entire system is corrupt. After seeing firsthand the cruelty of the system, our newly radicalized dragon savior takes matters into his own hands. Written by Steve Orlando with art from Megan Huang. 32 pages for $3.99

Marvel

Blood Hunt tie-ins: Marvel's vampire-action event spreads like a virus into multiple tie-in minis. And yet you have some intriguing side-roads being taken here; writer Bryan Hill and artist German Peralta are getting the band back together in Midnight Sons: Blood Hunt #1 (of 3); a mess of different creators come together for the anthology Blood Hunters #1 (of 4), assembling a new team to combat the vampire menace; T'Challa's fangs come out in Black Panther: Blood Hunt #1 (of 3) courtesy Cheryl Lynn Eaton and Farid Karami; the global battle rages in London, and a British hero's on the front lines in Union Jack the Ripper: Blood Hunt #1 (of 3) by Cavan Scott and Kev Walker; and to no one's surprise the Prince of Darkness Hizzown-Damn-Self enters the fray (though writer Danny Lore and artist Vincenzo Carratu are keeping His allegiance tantalizingly unclear) in Dracula: Blood Hunt #1 (of 3). All of these are $4.99 for 40 pages.

Deadpool & Wolverine: WWII #1 (of 3): Delta sets his sights on Deadpool, and Wolvie gets caught up in the plot. Written by Joe Kelly with art from Adam Kubert. 40 pages for $4.99

Doom #1: HOT DOODILY-DOOM! Everyone's favorite armor-plated despot takes center stage in this spectacular one-shot, in which he seeks to harness more power than ever to defend the entire universe from the hunger of Galactus! Wow! Jonathan Hickman and Sanford Greene pack more mighty metallic majesty than you can handle into 56 pages. $7.99.

Get Fury #1 (of 5): 1971. A war rages in Vietnam, and Nick Fury has been captured by the Vietcong. While they don't quite realize the weapon they have on their hands, the CIA does, and they aren't willing to risk him running his mouth. To ensure his silence, they dispatch Lt. Frank Castle. Written by Garth Ennis with art from Jacen Burrows. 32 pages for $3.99

Hellverine #1 (of 4): When Bagra-Ghul first came to earth, it brought Logan and Ghost Rider together to hunt it down, forming HELLVERINE. See here what evil brings them together for a second time... Written by Benjamin Percy with art from Julius Ohta. 40 pages for $4.99

Venom: Separation Anxiety #1 (of 5): Venom has a new enemy, and their bond will be tested like never before when a foe with the power to alter reality itself threatens to tear Eddie's world apart. Written by David Michelinie with art from Gerardo Sandoval. 40 pages for $4.99

X-Men: The Wedding Special #1: The main event of this Marvel Voices: Pride anthology one-shot is the oft-discussed yet never shown (UNTIL NOW!) wedding of popular mutant couple Mystique and Destiny. This groundbreaking moment in comics is brought to you by award-winning writers Yoon-Ha Lee and M. Louis in their Marvel debut; they are backed, in this 88-page, $9.99 comic by the ever popular and more!

Comix Experience Onomatopoeia is published monthly by Comix Experience, and is based (very loosely) on the original design by Larry Young. Then I fucked it up. Completely free if you pick it up in-store, but if you want us to mail it to you, hey, be a cool cat and send us $10 for the year. All contents are copyright and (tm) their actual owners, except the stuff that's not, which belongs to us. Brian still hasn't learned how to do captions properly, so go right ahead and conclude that if you see a picture of Superman, it doesn't belong to us. This isn't exactly rocket science, afterall.. Frickin' lawyers. Your comments, accolades, and harsh criticism is always sought, but what the hell are you reading this little type for anyway? Are you really that bored? Shouldn't you be reading a comic? I mean, really!
